

I used to get my messages in my email as a wav file and now they are gone. Is this because I switched my client for email?

Yes, if you change your email address, you will have to change it on the Web PhoneManager under Notification Settings and click on SMS tab and change the email address to the new email address. Now your voicemail should arrive in your new email inbox.