

1.4.13 Missing Students

In Accordance with the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008, Suffolk University has developed a policy for notifying the designated emergency contact for a student who is residing in campus housing (including leased properties) and who is reported / determined to be missing. The University also has developed this policy to locate any student that is a non resident who is reported missing to the University.

Reviewed by	Date
Incident Support Team	10/30/2013