

0500 Academic Advising Records

Description: Documents undergraduate and graduate students' academic progress and advice provided by University faculty within a specific department and/or college program.

Examples: Records may include notes and memos, correspondence, recommendations, and any related course planning materials.

Retention Period: Retain for 1 year after graduation, transfer, or separation, and then destroy.