

0505 Academic Program Administration Records

Description: Records that document the organization and daily administration of academic courses and programs for a department or office.

Examples: Records may include add/drop records, enrollment reports and class lists, handouts and informational binders, general advising material, international program records, placement information, and registration reports.

Retention Period: Retain for 2 years following close of item, and then destroy.