Classroom Technology

Computer Classrooms

Multimedia Classrooms

Many classrooms in the Sawyer Building are equipped with multimedia presentation devices for use in classroom instruction, including projectors, DVD players, desktop computers and motorized projection screens, all operated via centralized remote control system.

The Office of Technology Management maintains the desktop computers located in the general purpose classrooms and the dedicated computer classrooms. All other equipment, including the centralized remote control system is serviced by University Media Services.