Manually connecting to Suffolk University's secure WPA2 wireless for non-supported devices

Most devices that support WPA2 Enterprise mode should be able to connect to Suffolk University's secure WPA2 wireless network. While Suffolk University does not officially support every type of device, you are welcome to use the following settings.

University Computer Policy Suffolk University computing resources referenced by this document are bound by the Un iversity Acceptable Use Policy.

SSID

- For faculty and staff: SU_Staff_WPA2
- For students: SU_Student_WPA2

Username and Password

- For faculty and staff: use your desktop login and password
- For students: use your email login and password

Security

WPA2 Enterprise

Authentication/EAP method

Protected EAP (PEAP)

Inner Authentication

MSCHAPv2